Dear friends,

We have an update which calls for prayer! About a month ago we appealed to the hospital for financial aid because we have no insurance. Two weeks ago they dropped the bill by 50%. We contacted them at that time and were told that they would further consider our needs. We just received a phone call asking what we could afford to pay. When we told her she said she would submit our case for 100% reduction. We solicit your prayers for this crucial decision. What a relief it would be to be freed of this burden!

We continue to work with the natural remedies for the eye and leg problems and it seems to be doing well. As long as we stay on schedule and do not skip treatments (leaving home for hours at a time, etc.) things seem to hold steady. When he begins to exert himself because he feels better, that is when the challenges arise.

Derrol's eye pressure was taken last Thursday, and it was a beautiful reading of 20--the lowest it has been, and in the normal range. His good eye was steady at 19. We rejoice and pray that things will remain like this. We don't have to go back to the doctor in Spokane until the 24th, so we are thankful. We hope that the eye will be stable enough for the third surgery to be done this December. The doctor says that the silicone oil will need to be in Derrol's eye for about six months and there appears to be something floating around in it which is blocking his vision. Our hope is that it will heal early and the oil can be sooner removed so he can see again in that eye.

Peace, perfect peace! Our future all unknown. Jesus we know and He is on the throne.

O how grateful we are for every prayer!

Derrol and Cindy
